Referred to:
Honorable Magistrate Judge David T.

23 Pursuant to Local Rule 83-1.3, Defendant CSA-18 Special Districts Public Works
24 hereby give notice of the following related case: Jeff Macy et al. v. San Bernadino County
25 Code Enforcement et al., Case no. 5:23-cv-01955-HDV-PD.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 The instant case is related to Case No. 5:23-cv-01955-HDV-PD for the following
2 reasons:

3 1. Both cases arise from the same happenings or events, namely, the same
4 incidents, or series of incidents, interactions and encounters between Plaintiff and
5 San Bernadino County entities and employees for the past 18 years on Plaintiff's
6 property and/or on or near Burnt Mill Canyon Road.

7 2. Both cases call for determinations of the same or substantially related or 8 similar questions of law and fact, namely nearly identical causes of action and 9 alleged facts. Specifically, that Defendant intentionally deprived Plaintiff of her
10 property interest by trespassing onto their property and failing to repair certain 11 roads, refusal to fix roads, trespass, violation of California's Bane Act violation,
12 Monell liability, unreasonable search, forced demolition permit, forced address
13 failure to do Public Records Requests, and excessive fines.

14 3. Adjudication and resolution of both cases would entail substantial duplication 15 of labor if heard by different judges because both cases involve the same theories
16 of legal liability (i.e., unreasonable search, municipal and supervisory liability, 17 intentional infliction of emotional distress, forced demolition permit, forced 18 address, trespass, failure to do Public Records Requests, and excessive fines) and 19 both cases involve a single indivisible harm or injury to Plaintiff—alleged 20 intentional deprivation of Plaintiff's property interests by Defendant.

1 Based on the foregoing, Defendant gives notice that this case, Case No.
